

Jeremiah 21:8-14 True and False Test

Circle the true or false answers. Correct the false statements by restating them.

1. Jeremiah was a traitor because he disagreed with the king and the city's leaders and supported the Babylonian invaders of Judea. True or False
2. The LORD gave people the option of choosing between the way of life and the way of death. True or False
3. Those who stayed safely in the city would get hungry, but everything would be okay if they obeyed the house of the king of Judah. True or False
4. Those who surrendered to the Chaldeans did not have enough faith in the LORD to remain in the city. True or False
5. As punishment for their idolatry, sins, and refusal to turn back to the LORD, the LORD set His face against the city. True or False
6. It would be a blessing for the people and Jerusalem if the city were given over into the hands of the king of Babylon. True or False
7. Those who went out and surrendered to the Chaldeans would live. True or False
8. Through the prophet Jeremiah, the LORD warned the king and the elite in Jerusalem, and He told them to execute justice, deliver people from their oppressors and robbers, and quit doing evil. True or False
9. The people thought Jerusalem was a city of refuge, so they thought the Babylonian army could never enter the city. True or False
10. The LORD told them that He would punish them according to what they had done. True or False