Scripture Matthew 11:28-30

Title: God Keeps His Promises

Matthew 11 KJV

28 Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

The first invitation offered, "Come unto Me": This simple invitation requires so little while offering so much. Jesus tells His disciples how to release the burdens they're carrying by extending an invitation to the weary, those who labour and are heavy laden. Oftentimes many think they know best and will try to figure out life without God. Remember this song: "O What Peace We Often Forfeit, O What Needless Pain We Bear, All Because We Do Not Carry Everything to God in Prayer." Now Listen to the prayer Jesus allowed them to hear:

Matthew 11:25 "At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever (learned), and for revealing them to the childlike. 26 Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way. 27 My Father has entrusted everything to Me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him." NLT

Never go alone. Proverbs 3:5-6.

Jesus said, "I Am the Vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing."

John 15:5 KJV

Jesus is the answer to our every need. We must walk in humility and honesty with child-like faith.

Philippians 4:19 NKJV "And My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Come to Jesus in faith, believing He will meet our needs regardless of the matter we face, even death. The promise, "I will give you rest" The rest of salvation. The deliverance from the slavery and bondage of sin. Put your burdens in God's hands and enjoy His provision of forgiveness and eternal life.

NOTE: The most important part of a tree is the part you cannot see, the root system, and the most important part of the Christian's life is the part that only God sees. Unless we draw on the deep resources of God by faith, we fail against the pressures of life.

29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I Am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

The second invitation, "Take (accept/apply) My yoke, I care for you. There are many different kinds of yokes/burdens. But Jesus offers His yoke in exchange for the one you carry. Everyone has their yoke to bear, that is, his own life to live and his assignment to do while on earth. Jesus Christ is our burden Bearer and heavy load Sharon. Whenever we accept the yoke of Christ we simply learn how to live holy and labor under His guidance, leadership and care. Why would or why do many believers choose to keep their burdens instead of giving them to the only One who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us? (Eph.3) Learn of Me, I Am meek, lowly, gentle, long-suffering, understanding...This power is called dunamis, God's effectual power which is at work in our lives as long as we stay connected to the Power Source.

Amos 3:3 "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?"

What can render us powerless: Unbelief, unconfessed sin, careless living, worldliness in action or attitude. Take My yoke, learn of Me, and you will find rest unto your souls: rest of refreshing the body, mind and spirit, rest that stirs the heart and mind of a person to live with true purpose and significance.

30 For My yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (MSG "Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with Me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.")

God can give you perfect peace during the turbulence of life, if you will allow Him the opportunity.

Luke 9:23 KJV "And He said to them all, if any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;"

Trouble doesn't last always. Think of it as God's opportunity to work a miracle or demonstrate His power through His chosen vessel. Rest is available, but we have to come to Jesus in order to receive the rest of God. Are you tired enough to come to the Lord and rest?

Job 23 KJV

10 But He knoweth the way that I take: when He hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Jesus tells His disciples how to release the burdens they're carrying by extending an invitation to the weary, those who labour and are heavy laden. Oftentimes many think they know best and will try to figure out life without God. Remember this song: "O What Peace We Often Forfeit, O What Needless Pain We Bear, All Because We Do Not Carry Everything to God in Prayer." Now Listen to the prayer Jesus allowed them to hear:

Matthew 11:25 "At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever (learned), and for revealing them to the childlike. 26 Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way. 27 My Father has entrusted everything to Me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him." NLT

Never go alone. Proverbs 3:5-6.

Jesus said, "I Am the Vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing."

John 15:5 KJV

Jesus is the answer to our every need. We must walk in humility and honesty with child-like faith.

Philippians 4:19 NKJV "And My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Come to Jesus in faith, believing He will meet our needs regardless of the matter we face, even death. The promise, "I will give you rest" The rest of salvation. The deliverance from the slavery and bondage of sin. Put your burdens in God's hands and enjoy His provision of forgiveness and eternal life.

NOTE: The most important part of a tree is the part you cannot see, the root system, and the most important part of the Christian's life is the part that only God sees. Unless we draw on the deep resources of God by faith, we fail against the pressures of life.

29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I Am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

The second invitation, "Take (accept/apply) My yoke, I care for you. There are many different kinds of yokes/burdens. But Jesus offers His yoke in exchange for the one you carry. Everyone has their yoke to bear, that is, his own life to live and his assignment to do while on earth. Jesus Christ is our burden Bearer and heavy load Sharon. Whenever we accept the yoke of Christ we simply learn how to live holy and labor under His guidance, leadership and care. Why would or why do many believers choose to keep their burdens instead of giving them to the only One who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us? (Eph.3) Learn of Me, I Am meek, lowly, gentle, long-suffering, understanding...This power is called dunamis, God's effectual power which is at work in our lives as long as we stay connected to the Power Source.

Amos 3:3 "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?"

What can render us powerless: Unbelief, unconfessed sin, careless living, worldliness in action or attitude. Take My yoke, learn of Me, and you will find rest unto your souls: rest of refreshing the body, mind and spirit, rest that stirs the heart and mind of a person to live with true purpose and significance.

30 For My yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (MSG "Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with Me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.")

God can give you perfect peace during the turbulence of life, if you will allow Him the opportunity.

Luke 9:23 KJV "And He said to them all, if any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;"

Trouble doesn't last always. Think of it as God's opportunity to work a miracle or demonstrate His power through His chosen vessel. Rest is available, but we have to come to Jesus in order to receive the rest of God. Are you tired enough to come to the Lord and rest?

Oftentimes many think they know best and will try to figure out life without God. Remember this song: "O What Peace We Often Forfeit, O What Needless Pain We Bear, All Because We Do Not Carry Everything to God in Prayer." Now Listen to the prayer Jesus allowed them to hear:

Matthew 11:25 "At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever (learned), and for revealing them to the childlike. 26 Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way. 27 My Father has entrusted everything to Me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him." NLT

Never go alone. Proverbs 3:5-6.

Jesus said, "I Am the Vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing."

John 15:5 KJV

Jesus is the answer to our every need. We must walk in humility and honesty with child-like faith.

Philippians 4:19 NKJV "And My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Come to Jesus in faith, believing He will meet our needs regardless of the matter we face, even death. The promise, "I will give you rest" The rest of salvation. The deliverance from the slavery and bondage of sin. Put your burdens in God's hands and enjoy His provision of forgiveness and eternal life.

NOTE: The most important part of a tree is the part you cannot see, the root system, and the most important part of the Christian's life is the part that only God sees. Unless we draw on the deep resources of God by faith, we fail against the pressures of life.

29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I Am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

The second invitation, "Take (accept/apply) My yoke, I care for you. There are many different kinds of yokes/burdens. But Jesus offers His yoke in exchange for the one you carry. Everyone has their yoke to bear, that is, his own life to live and his assignment to do while on earth. Jesus Christ is our burden Bearer and heavy load Sharon. Whenever we accept the yoke of Christ we simply learn how to live holy and labor under His guidance, leadership and care. Why would or why do many believers choose to keep their burdens instead of giving them to the only One who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us? (Eph.3) Learn of Me, I Am meek, lowly, gentle, long-suffering, understanding...This power is called dunamis, God's effectual power which is at work in our lives as long as we stay connected to the Power Source.

Amos 3:3 "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?"

What can render us powerless: Unbelief, unconfessed sin, careless living, worldliness in action or attitude. Take My yoke, learn of Me, and you will find rest unto your souls: rest of refreshing the body, mind and spirit, rest that stirs the heart and mind of a person to live with true purpose and significance.

30 For My yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (MSG "Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with Me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.")

God can give you perfect peace during the turbulence of life, if you will allow Him the opportunity.

Luke 9:23 KJV "And He said to them all, if any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;"

Trouble doesn't last always. Think of it as God's opportunity to work a miracle or demonstrate His power through His chosen vessel. Rest is available, but we have to come to Jesus in order to receive the rest of God. Are you tired enough to come to the Lord and rest?

Remember this song: "O What Peace We Often Forfeit, O What Needless Pain We Bear, All Because We Do Not Carry Everything to God in Prayer." Now Listen to the prayer Jesus allowed them to hear:

Matthew 11:25 "At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever (learned), and for revealing them to the childlike. 26 Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way. 27 My Father has entrusted everything to Me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him." NLT

Never go alone. Proverbs 3:5-6.

Jesus said, "I Am the Vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in Me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without Me ye can do nothing."

John 15:5 KJV

Jesus is the answer to our every need. We must walk in humility and honesty with child-like faith.

Philippians 4:19 NKJV "And My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

Come to Jesus in faith, believing He will meet our needs regardless of the matter we face, even death. The promise, "I will give you rest" The rest of salvation. The deliverance from the slavery and bondage of sin. Put your burdens in God's hands and enjoy His provision of forgiveness and eternal life.

NOTE: The most important part of a tree is the part you cannot see, the root system, and the most important part of the Christian's life is the part that only God sees. Unless we draw on the deep resources of God by faith, we fail against the pressures of life.

29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I Am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

The second invitation, "Take (accept/apply) My yoke, I care for you. There are many different kinds of yokes/burdens. But Jesus offers His yoke in exchange for the one you carry. Everyone has their yoke to bear, that is, his own life to live and his assignment to do while on earth. Jesus Christ is our burden Bearer and heavy load Sharon. Whenever we accept the yoke of Christ we simply learn how to live holy and labor under His guidance, leadership and care. Why would or why do many believers choose to keep their burdens instead of giving them to the only One who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us? (Eph.3) Learn of Me, I Am meek, lowly, gentle, long-suffering, understanding...This power is called dunamis, God's effectual power which is at work in our lives as long as we stay connected to the Power Source.

Amos 3:3 "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?"

What can render us powerless: Unbelief, unconfessed sin, careless living, worldliness in action or attitude. Take My yoke, learn of Me, and you will find rest unto your souls: rest of refreshing the body, mind and spirit, rest that stirs the heart and mind of a person to live with true purpose and significance.

30 For My yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (MSG "Learn the unforced rhythms of grace. I won't lay anything heavy or ill-fitting on you. Keep company with Me and you'll learn to live freely and lightly.")

God can give you perfect peace during the turbulence of life, if you will allow Him the opportunity.

Luke 9:23 KJV "And He said to them all, if any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;"

Trouble doesn't last always. Think of it as God's opportunity to work a miracle or demonstrate His power through His chosen vessel. Rest is available, but we have to come to Jesus in order to receive the rest of God. Are you tired enough to come to the Lord and rest?

Job 23 KJV

10 But He knoweth the way that I take: when He hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

Scripture Matthew 11:28-30

Title: God Keeps His Promises

Matthew 11 KJV

28 Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

The first invitation offered, "Come unto Me": This simple invitation requires so little while offering so much. Jesus tells His disciples how to release the burdens they're carrying by extending an invitation to the weary, those who labour and are heavy laden. Oftentimes many think they know best and will try to figure out life without God. Remember this song: "O What Peace We Often Forfeit, O What Needless Pain We Bear, All Because We Do Not Carry Everything to God in Prayer." Now Listen to the prayer Jesus allowed them to hear:
